CHAPTER 167.

A further supplement to an act entitled, An act to incorporate the Stock-holders of the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore.

Passed Feb. 16 1822.

WHEREAS, The president and directors of the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, have represented to this general assembly, that owing to various losses which have been sustained by the said bank, the capital stock thereof has become considerably impaired; and that to reinstate it out of the future earnings of the bank would be extremely burthensome and oppressive to many of the stock-holders; and that it would be advantageous to the said bank to reduce the amount of each share of its capital stock from twenty-five dollars to fifteen dollars, and have prayed that a law might be passed accordingly, subject nevertheless to the approbation of a general meeting of the stock-holders of the said bank; and the prayer of the said petitioners appearing to this general assembly to be reasonable and just—Therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, and the assent of the stock-holders thereto as herein after provided, the capital stock of
